

BONNER THE "WELCHER."

For many years Robert Bonner has posed as the great "High You Muck You Muck" of the American trotting world. He bought up all the record breakers and retired them from the turf. He never would allow them to trot for money, leading the public to believe that he was too conscientious to win any man's money. He finally offered $5,000 to any horse who would beat 2:05.

Well Budd Doble sent Nancy Hanks a mile in 2:04 at Terre Haute and wired Bonner to that effect. He supposed—as did everybody else—that Bonner, on the receipt of the message, would send back $5,000 as he had agreed. This was some months ago but Bonner has not paid a dollar. In fact he has backed squarely down and in the language of the turf "welched."

When some poor devil on a race course bets a few dollars, loses and cannot pay, he is kicked off the track followed by a shower of abuse, jibes and profanity. The small boys think it not out of place to send a few clods of dirt after his retreating figure and he is counted as having more than the human average of gall if he ever appears at the track again.

Robert Bonner, a millionaire, and posing all these years as the great turf king and trotting authority, too conscientious to bet; clothed in the imperial purple of the kingdom of horsemen, turns out to be a plain, ordinary "welcher" whose word on the track is not good unless accompanied by the cash.

Robert Bonner whenever he shows up on a race track again should take the precaution to have some friend put a gunny sack over his head and tie it firmly under his chin before he shows up at the grand stand.

REDUCE STATE EXPENSES.

The sixteenth session of the Nevada legislature will convene in Carson on the third Monday in January. Reduction of State expenses will be the most important matter that is likely to come before the body and will no doubt receive careful consideration, as it is an important factor in something must be done to relieve the taxpayers of the State from the present burden of high taxation.

With a State containing only about 40,000 people we pay as large salaries as the most prosperous states in the union, and at the same time give most of our State officers the expensive luxury of a deputy. This is not right, and the people who have the true interest of the State at heart will so declare.

A great deal is expected of the Silver party and it must make no mistakes. Let every one do that which is likely to make the work of reform as easy as possible.—Silver State.

Stocks and Pistols.

Recently in San Francisco, James Fogarty, who had been induced to buy some stock by Wm. Lent, (of Lent Harperding & Co., of diamond swindle notoriety) shot at the son of Lent and then blew out his own brains.

He left a note saying that he wanted Lent to sell his stock at $57 but he refused saying it would go to $100. It then declined to $9 and pauperized Fogarty.

This is an old story on this coast, poor men victimized by unscrupulous brokers. Lent says the man was out of his head, but don't deny that he was mixed up in stock transactions with him. When an outsider gets mixed up in a stock transaction with a broker he always loses. Sometimes he shoots the broker. This appears the shortest way to settle, as there is no law on this coast to prevent a stock holder robbing his patrons.

It is good, very good. A nice morsel for free silver men to roll under their palates. Three notorious Democratic goldbugs went down in the recent cyclone—Herbert of Alabama, Hemphill of South Carolina and the weeping, insufferable Hoar of Massachusetts were all defeated. For such blessings may the Lord make the silver men truly thankful for the recent political cyclone.—Denver News.

Japan wants to send seven thousand tons of exhibits to Chicago, and the World's Fair directors can allow for only seventeen hundred tons. Isn't this poor policy?
